ADVANTAGES OF A DESTINATION WEDDING

- A destination wedding can be a good way to stick to the budget and be conservative
- It cost less to have a destination wedding than a reception and wedding for 200 guests at a luxury hotel
- They provide a good way to keep the guest list down.
- Often times the guests who end up attending are your closest of family and friends , which makes the entire event that much more intimate and meaningful
- You can be creative and not have the traditional wedding. A destination wedding can help relieve that stress
- All- inclusive resorts and hotels often offer specials and other services to help you plan the wedding at their location
- You can honeymoon at the same location as the wedding and not make another financial investment for a honeymoon
- Opt to have a honeymoon in another location after the destination wedding
- The wedding guests enjoy a vacation as well as witness your wedding

MOST POPULAR LOCATIONS FOR DESTINATION WEDDINGS

- Mexico
- Jamaica
- Dominica Republic
- Bahamas
- Hawaii
- US Virgin Islands

STEPS TO PLANNING

1. Choose a location based on your wedding style and desires
2. If friends and family are invited, consider a family oriented, all-inclusive resort or cruise during low season
3. Start researching and planning your destination wedding as soon as possible
4. Be flexible
5. Avoid stress! Work with a Destination Wedding Consultant

STEPS TO PLANNING

6. Tell your bridal party about the destination before you ask them so that they can gracefully decline if finances are tight
7. Consider the climate when choosing your location and your wedding attire
8. Send Save-the-Date Cards as soon as possible so guests can plan ahead
9. Many tropical islands run on "island time" -- things happen when they happen
10. Get everything about the wedding in writing
